Dear Brenda,

Since the economic downturn, the flow of good news in the restaurant industry has been slow. This makes the wealth of recent good news in Central Vermont even sweeter! It is wonderful to see many great things happening in Central Vermont.

Dunkin Donuts Opens New Location

Check it out! Located on Route 302 next to Legare Farm Market.

Congratulations to Damartin Quadros and the rest of the Dunkin Donuts staff on the successful opening of the new location on Route 302. The building looks great, and with a full-service drive-thru, consumers will certainly access their morning coffee with greater ease. More Information

The Wayside Goes Green

Wayside Restaurant & Bakerawarded Vermont Green Restaurant Designation.

Congratulations to Brian & Karen Zechinelli of the Wayside on their recent Green Restaurant Designation! As there are only five restaurants in the state with this designation, having one in the Central VT area is certainly something to be proud of. The efforts to help improve the community and environment will certainly be appreciated. More Information

The Quarry Grill & Tavern

New restaurant opens in Downtown Barre.

The new restaurant in Barre seems to be doing well! The restaurant is open 7 nights a week and offers plentiful outdoor seating for those nice sunny days. They serve American cuisine so if you are craving burgers, steak, seafood, or sandwiches this should certainly be on your list of places to try.

Three Local Winners!

Small Business Administration Awards include Ladder 1 Grill

Another fact to be proud of, Barre was the only area to have more than one Small Business Administration Award recipients. Three women were crowned in total from the Barre area. Cecile Johnston of the Central Vermont Community Action Council was recognized with the Home-based Business Champion Award for her work with assisting low-to-moderate income people being their own businesses. Valerie Beaudet, winner of the Community Spirit Award, is the owner of Ladder 1 Grill and Flowers by Emslie & Co. Mollie Brault-Binaghi, President of Copy World and Vice President of Eternity Marketing L.L.C, won the Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award.

Simply Subs III

The new location at the mall opens for business.

The new location is a vibrant addition to the mall. The bright colors seem to draw in customers as it is almost always occupied by customers. Congratulations on another success!

J. Morgans Steakhouse

Patrons savoring extensive renovations.

J. Morgans Steakhouse at the Capitol Plaza finished renovations this spring. The new, sleek look is elegant, comfortable, and a hit with patrons.
